The Descendent of Mahommet Majestically Moves at the Head of Sixty Thousand Men-Cold Stream Gnards-

Mrs. Lowell Dead-Notes.

LONDON, Feb. 20.-Affairs appear to be in a critical condition on the Nile, so far as Genwal Buller's force is concerned at Gubat.

He has retreated upon Abu Klea, before a force of 9,000 men with five long-range guns sent against him by the mahdi. The retree was ordered when the main body of the Arabwas twenty miles distant.

Before leaving Gubat General Bullar re-moved from the Gordon steamers their machinery, and rendered them useless to the He has less than 2,000 effective men, and 1,500 camela. The water is inadequate to supply them. further retreat is neces-Gen. Buller is supposed to be awaiting orders to either retire to Galdul or to advance to Berber and join Gen. Brackenbarry's forces. The probability is that Gen. Buller will retreat upon Gakdul wells and thence to Korti to join the force under Gen. Wolstley.

It is said that the mahdi himself is traveling in state with from 40,000 to 60,000 follow ers toward Metemneh. The force encountered by Gen. Taibot was an advance detachment Advices from Calcutta state that a carnel corps of 2,000, 500 dooly heavers and 500 laborers for the railway gang are going to Suakim immediately.

Konar, Feb. 20.-Eighty Canadian voyageurs remain at Korti for further service. The malshi secured all of Gen. Gordon's paper and paper money, and is cashing the latter for war expenses. The British officer are buying these notes, as well as leaden medals struck by Gordon at Khartoum, as me-

A convoy of wounded under Gen, Talbot, which encountered a force of 5,000 near Subat on the 17th, has arrived at Galdul. Hassen Bey's official title is High Coramismoner with Gen. Wolseley. A hative reports a dangerous cataract developed between Berber and Shendy, which is likely to stop navigation until July.

Cold Stream Gnards.

LONDON, Feb. 20.-The Cold Stream guards have departed from Westminster, en route to Suakim. As the regiment marched through the streets on the way to the place of embarkation the men were enthusiastically cheered, while relatives and friends and many privates broke through the ranks and embraced and wept over them. Men and women sobbed bitterly at parting, and many touching scenes between mother and son, husband and wife, lover and sweetheart, were noted. As the soldiers embarked the band played "Auld Lang Syne" and "Home, Sweet Home."

Boats Too Small.

QUEENSTOWN, Feb. 20.-The Canadian vovageurs who have arrived here on their way home, say Wolseley's boats were entirely too frail for the Nile service. Thirty were destroyed in pulling them over the cataracts. Ten voyageurs were drowned in the Nile, two died of fever, and two were killed on the railroad in Egypt.

England Warned.

LONDON, Feb. 20 .- A document purporting to be written by an emissary of the mahdi i England, warns England against compellin a general moslem rising, and intimating that the mahdi will, as mahommet before him, make treaties with christians and other in-Exiles Killed.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 20.-A dispatch just received from Irkutsk, Siberia, states that the THOS. R. PHISTER, exiles of that place recently revolted, and before the outbreak could be suppressed thirty participants were killed and a large number wounded. None of the soldiers were killed.

Mrs. Lowell Dead.

LONDON, Feb. 20.-Mrs. James Russell Lowell is dead. She passed away in the unconsciousness of a deep sleep. There were no symptoms of pain.
